

Problem Card

control freak

Questions: What does it mean when someone is being a control freak? Why and how can you control other people in the workplace?

Situation/ Task: One person in your work community is trying to control every aspect of everyone's work. How do you resolve this problem?

Problem Card

discrimination

Questions: What is discrimination? How would you define discrimination at the work place? What forms of discrimination can occur in the work place?

Task/ Situation: Someone at your workplace is being discriminated against. How do you handle this problem from the perspective of your character?

Problem Card

non-delegation

Questions: What forms can the “non-delegation” of tasks take in workplace? Who could be the person/ position not delegating work to others?

Situation/ Task: Someone in your workplace doesn't delegate any tasks to people who could help that person. He/She wants to take on all the responsibility/ work. This stops other sections/ workers from progressing with their respective work.

What would your character do to resolve this situation?

Problem Card

sexual harassment

Questions: How would you define sexual harassment in the work place? What forms of sexual harassment can occur in the work place?

Situation/ Task: Your co-worker approaches you and tells you that they have been sexually harassed by a person in a position of authority in the work place.

How do you handle this problem from the perspective of your character?

Problem Card

Free-rider

Questions: Who is a free-rider, what does that mean? How does the free-riding affect the whole workplace and the atmosphere?

Situation/ Task: Someone at your workplace is letting everyone else to do the work and isn't contributing. This means extra work for the rest of the team. This person needs to be activated!

How do you handle this problem from the perspective of your character?

Rules:

- Two kind of cards: character cards and problem cards.
 - Choose one consultant to running the game.
 - Point of the game is to solve problems in the work place through dialogue.
- 1 Every person/team picks up a character card.
 - 2 Consultant pick a problem card.
 - 3 Every player contributes to the solutions of the problem from their characters perspective.
 - 4 Have a dialogue about the solution and how the game went as themselves.